

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Virgil Moore left last week for Chicago.

Blair Pierson, of Ripley, was in the city Friday.

Attorney John E. Wells was in Nashville last week.

Robt. Rinehart went to Caruthersville, Mo., last week.

E. K. Bruce, of Kenton, registered at the Palace Tuesday.

Chas. E. Jones, of the Nashville Banner, was here last week.

Mrs. J. S. Bowling, of Martin, was in the city shopping Monday.

Attorney W. W. Cochran, of Tiptonville, was in the city several days this week.

Mr. Herman Cross, of Barfield, Ark., spent a few days in Union City last week.

T. L. Adams is recovering from pneumonia this week, and we hope will be out soon.

Fred Kline has built a handsome new cottage home on his place east of the city on the Troy road.

Mr. Jesse Hancock, of Paris, is in the city spending the week with his sister, Miss Mattie Hancock.

Our old friend, P. H. Owen, has located at Protimus, and, we are told, has a fine school at that place.

D. A. Walker and wife and Mrs. G. W. Wade, of Trenton, were guests at the Palace Hotel Friday.

Mrs. Dr. S. W. Godwin is very sick this week. She has been afflicted some time with cancerous affection.

Prof. John D. Boaz and Miss Adrain Brevard have been unanimously elected for another term of the Pleasant Valley school.

W. B. Stovall, Rives, M. L. Shofner, Newbern, and T. R. Gardner, Terrell, registered at the Brackin Hotel this week.

G. W. Reynolds has a twenty-months' old Jersey cow, weighing 385 pounds, which gives two gallons of milk a day.

Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Prather, of Louisville, Ky., who have been visiting relatives here and at Jordan, returned home Saturday.

Russell Garth, who has been teaching at Maple Grove, has been elected principal of the Beech school beginning in August.

C. E. Dowling, traveling freight agent of the M. & O. from West Point, Miss., was in the city last week, the guest of R. C. Garth.

Sheriff John E. Finch and Esquire W. H. Nichols, of No. 8, have gone to Arkansas for a few weeks' camp hunting and fishing.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Davis will be glad to learn that little Annie Lee, who has been very sick with pneumonia is getting well.

Miss Jennie Watson, of State Line, Ky., and Miss Cora Lee Brown, of Hickman, were in the city this week visiting Mrs. L. H. Lockhart.

There were seventeen new members added to the order of the Daughters of the Confederacy at a meeting at Mrs. Dr. Trevathan's last week.

J. R. Morgan, senior member of the firm Morgan & Hardy Bros., has returned home after a winter's sojourn in Phoenix, Ariz., looking in fine health.

The Review Club held a very interesting meeting at the residence of Mrs. D. P. Shoffner last Thursday evening, in honor of Miss Alice Allen of the Public School.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Boswell have moved to the pretty new residence on Ury street near the Methodist parsonage to undertake the responsibilities of housekeeping.

Supt. John Blumson and mother, Mrs. Mary Littleton, left Monday for his home in Pine Bluff, Ark. Mrs. Littleton will remain in Arkansas for a short time for her health.

Mrs. N. E. Wilson is having two nice five-room cottages erected on South Ury Street. Carpenters are busy at work on them, and they will be ready for occupancy in a few days.

Prof. O. A. Kennedy and Mrs. Otelia Burrus, of the Woodland public school, were here Monday night to witness the performance of Quo Vadis. They were guests of the Trustee and Mrs. W. G. Kelley.

Rev. G. W. Shelton, of Jackson, who exchanged pulpits with the pastor here last Sunday, preached two very interesting sermons at the C. P. Church. His subject Sunday evening was the character of Peter.

The M. & O. Railroad Company are distributing 70-pound steel rails, beginning at a point already completed a few miles north of the city, going south. They are to take the place of old rails weighing 56 pounds.

Robt. Moffatt and Oscar Clemmons were here Monday night for Quo Vadis at the Opera House.

A horse driven by Master Will Swiggart, evidently looking for a letter, ran away down First street Saturday and stopped in front of the post-office, breaking thills and harness somewhat, but doing no serious damage.

John C. Davis is in Lake County this week, placing a large line of insurance with the merchants and business men of Tiptonville on their new houses. Mr. Davis represents some of the best old-line companies in the United States.

We are pleased to state this week to the friends of Sam Carter that he is much improved in health. Sam has been an invalid for nearly two years, and we sincerely hope he will be soon be fully restored. He is under the care of Dr. W. L. Hendricks.

Chas. E. Denham, the founder of the Union City Lodge of Elks, No. 679, was presented at the meeting Saturday night with a handsome gold emblem, studded with diamonds, in token of his splendid services in securing the lodge at this place.

The ladies of Obion Presbytery will hold their Annual Presbyterial Missionary Convention at the C. P. Church in Rives, on the 25th of April, next Thursday, beginning at 10.30 a. m. An interesting program has been arranged and a good attendance is expected.

Through some fault in the office a few lines were dropped from the article on the Elks' banquet last week, and the name of Dr. C. W. Miles as toastmaster was omitted. Asking the Doctor's pardon, would like to say that the reporter stated he was in a happy humor and presided with the dignity and grace of the famous Chauncy.

The lecture delivered by Rev. David Leath at the M. E. Church Thursday evening, on "Scottish Life and Character," was very much enjoyed by all present. His perfect familiarity with the history of the country and knowledge of the people, combined with his interesting way of telling it, makes it a treat that one seldom has the opportunity of enjoying.

Mr. J. F. Gregory, of the Fry-Gregory Hardware Company moved last week with his family from Harris, and is occupying a residence in the northeast section of the city on the street south of the college building. Mr. Gregory was for a number of years member of the County Court from his district, a good citizen, and we welcome him and his family to the city.

W. E. Dunn, of the Lake City Packing Company, Lake City, Ark., sent us an order last week for the Commercial. Everybody here, no doubt, remembers the lad who peddled sassafras around town some years ago, and will be glad to know that he has risen through his own effort to the position of proprietor and manager of a concern of that kind. We congratulate Mr. Dunn.

Monday's Fulton Leader says: Esq. R. A. Roberts found two youngsters in the matrimonial park adjoining his residence yesterday morning at 10.30 o'clock, anxious to shoulder the joys and woes of a life partnership. The Squire gave them the benefit of his Sunday ceremony while they sat in a buggy and made legal vows. E. L. Wray and Miss E. B. Derryberry, both from Pilot Oak, were the happy couple.

Sheriff Finch, who has for some time been on the lookout for Gan Carter, colored, for shooting Geo. Wilson at Kenton four years ago in a difficulty, learning that Carter was at Carbondale, Ill., went there Saturday, found him, arrested and brought him back to Union City without requisition. He was to be tried Monday, but examination was waived and he was remanded to jail without bail. Carter is a bad negro, and has a brother, Pete, who shot and killed a negro in Lake County last year.

Two of the best known citizens of the vicinity west of Troy died recently. B. F. Hutchinson (Uncle Benny), one of the oldest residents of the county, a man of sterling qualities, a churchman and a Democrat of the old school, who has labored in and out of season for the principles dear to him, died a few weeks ago, leaving a widow to take care of the home. Last week on the 10th Naaman Littleton, of Ebenezer, passed away. He was afflicted with brain disease. He was another one of God's noblemen, a Mason, and a citizen of the highest integrity. There were a wife and several children to mourn his death.
